

TROOPS QUELL BLOODY RIOTS IN GERMANY

EMPIRE FACING INTERNAL CRISIS

10,000 Munitions Workers in Magdenburg Threaten to Apply Firebrand.

Berlin Strike Leaders Demand Revolutionary Changes. Allies Continue Advance.

Associated Press Dispatch. Interest in the great French offensive on the Aisne gives way to the startling news from the interior of Germany.

Although rigid censorship prevails, sufficient information has leaked through to indicate that the German Empire is facing a great economic and political crisis.

The latest information received is that 10,000 striking munition workers have engaged in a bloody riot in the great Prussian fortress town of Magdenburg, and were only prevented from burning the city hall after a sharp clash with the military.

This story comes from the Dutch frontier, with sufficient details to make its claims to authenticity impressive.

On its heels arrives the account of demands made by the leaders of the Berlin strike, demands of such revolutionary character that compliance with them would mean a prompt ending of the militarist regime in the German empire.

The exact status of the strike movement in Germany is unknown, but it is certain that a very considerable portion of the munition workers have been affected.

South of the main area of the Arras battlefield, the British last night delivered a stroke in the direction of Cambrai.

Pushing ahead in this region, they captured the village of Gonnelleu, more than a mile nearer the German lines between Cambrai and St. Quentin.

Last night's progress by the French was chiefly in their movement against the Brimont Plateau. They gained ground here in a grenade fight east of Courcy.

The fighting has spread further east in the Champagne, the French report indicates. Important reconnoitering activities are reported in this region.

HOOVER'S EXPERIENCE IN BELGIUM TO BE USED FOR HIS OWN COUNTRY

Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the Belgian relief commission, has been asked by the Council of National Defense to take the chairmanship of a committee on food supply and prices during the war. Associated Press Cable. Buenos Aires, April 21.—The Government has sent to Germany an energetic note demanding complete satisfaction for the sinking of the Argentinian sailing ship Monte Protegido.

The Argentinian Minister is instructed to immediately break off relations if Germany attempts to evade responsibility for the loss of the vessel.

The instructions sent to the Minister are that Argentina will permit of no evasion or delay on the part of Germany.

He is told to instruct the Berlin Government that if prompt satisfaction is not granted, Argentina will follow the course of the United States and Brazil and will arm its ships against submarines.

THE CAUSE

It was announced officially on April 13 that the Monte Protegido had been sunk by a submarine off the European coast.

The submarine fired on the ship, wounding a member of the crew. The news caused great excitement in Argentina, and demonstrations against Germany were organized.

While being guided by the policy observed by the Dato and Romanones ministries, the Government will maintain toward the belligerents the same strict neutrality, and will preserve the conduct hitherto followed by Spain, remaining faithful to the obligations of the treaties in force and always being inspired by the defense of the honor and vital interests of the nation.

The note concluded with an announcement that constitutional guarantees will be restored.

It adds that severe punishment will be meted out to all who attempt to injure the good relation between Spain and the belligerents.

CUBA, WITH MENOCAL AS LEADER, IN WAR WITH ALL HER HEART

PRESIDENT MENOCAL (X) OF CUBA AND MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF

President Menocal of Cuba announced in Havana that the entire Cuban army of 25,000 men would be placed at the orders of the United States government for service throughout the war with Germany, said Eduardo Mendez, a Cuban sugar planter, who arrived in New Orleans. Mr. Mendez reported that the selection of officers who speak English had begun.

Twenty-five thousand volunteers will be recruited to take the place of troops sent to the front or distributed wherever the United States wishes to use them, Mr. Mendez said. The accompanying picture shows President Menocal, in middle, marked with an X, with some of the members of his staff. At his right is General Jose Marti, and at his left is Colonel Alberto Herrera.

Administration leaders are determined to press the bill for final disposition, and expressed confidence that it would pass with a safe majority.

The bill, including the volunteer amendment, was ordered favorably reported to the House today by the Military Committee by a vote of 12 to 8.

Consideration in the House will begin on Monday, with prospects of a vote probably Wednesday night or Thursday.

Both the committee reports and the minority conscription report were filed today with the House.

JAPS REFUSE PROGRESSIVE GOVERNMENT

Associated Press Cable. Tokyo, Japan, April 21.—The indications are that the Administration has won the elections. The result will be close, and many outlying districts are still to be heard from.

The campaign which has just ended in Japan marked an important point in the struggle for a more representative form of government, in which the victory apparently has been won by the opponents of such reforms.

Count Okuma, leader of the movement for representative government, although having a large majority in the House of Representatives, was replaced last year as Premier by Count Terauchi, one of the most uncompromising opponents of the new school, which threatened to revolutionize the form of government.

Count Terauchi's avowed political slogan is a "no-party form of government."

THOUSANDS WITNESS BIG PATRIOTIC PARADE

Weather Man Steps in at Inopportune Moment and for Time Threatens to Spoil Event—Occasion One Long to Be Remembered in This City.

Although the rain and threatening storm rudely interrupted the patriotic parade and mass meeting, Friday night, it did not prevent a crowd estimated at 5000 to 7000 persons assembling on the main streets of the city to take part in the demonstration.

Just a few minutes before the time set for the parade to move, dark clouds swept up from the west and a veritable gale made the streets almost untenable. Then the rain drops spattered down, causing a still greater scurry to cover.

One thousand school children, who had assembled at the High school building and had formed ready to take part in the parade, were hurried into the Y. M. C. A. and other convenient places. Company M and the Washington band took refuge and virtually everyone who had appeared ready to take part, followed suit, so that at the appointed hour the parade had been utterly routed for the time being.

After a quarter of an hour's wait the parade was formed regardless of the scattering drops of rain and threatening skies, and with the band playing patriotic airs, drums beating, banners floating in the stiff breeze and great crowds forming a wall on both sides of the street, waving flags and applauding those taking part, the parade moved off and covered the line of march in splendid style.

Chas. Allen, Major Rell G. Allen and others, mounted, led the parade and with the aid of the police, kept channels open for the parade. Then came the Washington Band, Company M, National Guards, G. A. R. organizations, Junior Lodge, Boy Scouts, floats, public schools, other organizations and citizens.

The hundreds of school children, all carrying flags and each delegation or school following a large banner. A number of boy drummers were scattered through the long lines of children, so that the youngsters kept step like veterans.

It was the unanimous opinion that Supt. McClain, the teachers and pupils did their part nobly, and the youngsters were unhesitatingly pronounced the feature of the parade.

Other features were: Mr. E. A. Klevor as Uncle Sam; Miss Elizabeth Sheen as Columbia; Red Cross float; Medical Corps float; Domestic Science girls at work; the garden-making girls; float with "dog tent" for two soldiers, together with other interesting features.

It was an inspiring spectacle and one which will long be remembered by Washington citizens.

A huge flood-light was used by Mr. Clarence Craig from an upper window of Craig Bros. store, to illuminate the parade as it came up Court street. The whipping flags were caught and held by the light, adding to the effectiveness of the parade.

From 1,000 to 2,000 persons outside of the city, many of them from adjoining towns, were present to witness the demonstration and the streets were lined with automobiles, which were parked as thick as they could stick on some of the main streets.

Assembling on the court house lawn the big band delighted the great audience with a series of patriotic airs, and Hon. Frank C. Parrett, as presiding officer made a few appropriate remarks in introducing Hon. C. A. Reid. Mr. Reid had spoken only a few minutes when a gust of wind and downpour of rain brought the meeting to an end, and sent the crowd, band and speaker scurrying to shelter.

The drill by Company M and the speech by Dr. R. M. Hughey, as well as much of the band concert, were impossible because of the rain.

The committee in charge of the parade worked faithfully to make it a success, and received much merited praise.

EAST SIDE SCHOOL GETS LARGE FLAG

East Side School was presented with a large flag, Friday afternoon, by the Parent-Teachers Club of East Side, and the banner, 6 by 12 feet, now floats proudly over the school building.

The presentation and flag raising was an event of more than ordinary interest, and the ceremonies occurred at two o'clock. Mrs. Corrine Larimer, vice-president of the Parents Teachers Club, making the presentation speech, and Supt. McClain receiving the flag on behalf of the school.

The flag was then lifted to the newly erected staff and flung to the strong breeze blowing at that time. Patriotic songs were sung and the flag saluted.

The school is justly proud of the gift which is valued very highly.

FINAL PRACTICE BEFORE BIG TRIP

Tomorrow afternoon is the last practice of the Imperial Degree Staff before the big I. O. O. F. meeting to dedicate the new Temple at Marion, and Capt. H. D. Chaffin has sent word down from Columbus urging that every member of the Staff be present.

This staff has the reputation of being a "world's wonder" over at Marion and has "some reputation" to sustain, so it is doubly important that there be a big turn out at the Temple Sunday afternoon for the final practice.

Executive Committee Is Chosen to Head Move to Lift All Indebtedness of Young Men's Christian Association—Meetings Arranged.

The executive committee for the two-day whirlwind campaign to be conducted by the Y. M. C. A. next Wednesday and Thursday to raise $16,000 will consist of the following representative citizens:

Will Campbell, chairman; M. S. Daugherty, J. E. McLean, Walter W. Hamilton and R. C. Peddicord. The selection of Mr. Campbell, who is president of the Association, as chairman, is a popular one and he has agreed to make whatever sacrifice may be necessary from business to devote time to the campaign.

Ten teams consisting of sixty workers are being organized in two divisions for the active work of solicitation during the two days.

All members of the campaign organization are expected to attend, a rally at the Y. M. C. A. building Monday evening at six o'clock, when campaign director Mogge will outline the methods by which it is expected the full $16,000 will be secured in the two days. Supper will be served.

Representative Y. M. C. A. men from other cities will speak in the leading churches tomorrow, giving interesting and instructive addresses concerning Y. M. C. A. work. There will be no solicitation of funds.

A meeting of the executive committee will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at four o'clock.

In preparation for the campaign, a list of prospective contributors is being prepared and these names will be apportioned among the workers on the various teams. This list includes not only residents of the city but names of a number of men who reside in surrounding districts.

If the Y. M. C. A. has a mission it is to the young men who come from the country and small town communities to the city, in quest of a livelihood and to fit themselves for business careers, it is urged. Then 29 dormitories of the Association are occupied by young men away from home. At the present time the Association enrolls about 300 members, of whom more than one-third belong to the boys' department.

The annual budget of the Association is approximately $6,000, about seventy-five per cent of which is secured from the membership fees and dormitory rentals. In order to make the work self-supporting, it would mean the charging of such rates as would make the privileges prohibitive to the average young men who need them most. In practically every community funds are received annually for the maintenance of the Y. M. C. A. and contributions to this cause are declared to be among the best investments which business men make.

The Association has maintained a very creditable work, despite the serious handicap of debt which has existed since the occupancy of the new building. The large annual interest charges, necessitated by the mortgage have caused yearly deficits, which, together with unexpected repairs, non-payment of pledges and the increased cost of fuel, have grown to such proportions that the Board of Directors have determined upon an earnest effort to completely meet all outstanding obligations by June 15 and thus enable the Association to undertake its larger work in the community, with more aggressiveness and efficiency.

HOBOS FLEE FROM WORK ON STREETS

Fleeing in horror from work on the streets, three out of four hobos made their escape and hurried from the city, Saturday morning, after some 30 minutes sweeping on West court street.

Four of the hobos were put to work to pay fines assessed for vagrancy, and the only one of the quartet who refused run remained on the job because his worldly belongings, including a small amount of money, was under lock and key at the Mayor's office.

The hobos were put to work under the direction of the S. S. director, and managed to sweep one square, from the railroads to Hinde street when the first opportunity to run was taken on the instant.

STRONG SPEAKERS ARE FEATURE OF CLOSING SESSION

Forty-second Annual Conference W. M. S. Chillicothe Presbytery Ends Last Night—Annual Election of Officers Held.

The Forty-second Annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Chillicothe Presbytery closed a notably interesting and satisfactory convention Friday night.

Throughout everything had combined to make the meeting a success—beautiful weather; an unusually large attendance of delegates, fine speakers, good music—and the crowning feature the pleasurable noon luncheon of Friday, which brought the women into intimate social relations.

At the afternoon meeting the annual election was held, placing in office Mrs. E. W. Patterson, of Greenfield, President; Mrs. Bella L. Ustick of this city, First Vice President; Mrs. M. C. Hopewell, of Chillicothe, 2nd Vice; Mrs. Edwin Plyley, of Concord, 3rd Vice; Mrs. D. A. Martindale of Hamden, 4th Vice; Mrs. W. Hamill Shields 5th Vice; Mrs. James Parrett of Lyndon, 6th Vice; Corresponding Foreign Secretary, Miss Winifred Caldwell, of S. Salem; Home Cor. Sec., Mrs. Austin F. Both speakers were exceptionally able and held the audience in absorbed attention supplemented by beautiful musical numbers, Miss Lillian Davis contributing an organ solo and Miss Ada Woodward vocal.

Mrs. M. J. Gildersleeve, Secretary Missionary Education, New York city addressed the convention upon "America the Greatest Nation of the Earth." It was an address specially pertinent and its forceful thought couched in wonderfully beautiful and polished language. The dominant thought was expressed in the sentences, "In the blood of Europe the destiny of America is being written, when the last battle ship has been sunk; when the last engagement has been lost and won and the shattered remnants of the armies return to the weeping women in thousands of towns and villages, it is inevitable that towering over all shall be, sturdy and unshaken, the figure of America in politics, in industry and finance, the master of the world."

The speaker emphasized America's opportunity in world evangelization and was optimistic that through all this dreadful turmoil there is steady progress towards Christianity. She paid high tribute to the women of the country who are spending their strength and money in promoting the work of evangelization.

Rev. W. A. Dager, returned from long years of service in Africa, made a masterly address, bringing to his hearers realization of the perils and difficulties of missionary work in Africa. Especially full of thrills were the experiences of Rev. Dager and his wife during the German invasion of Africa in 1915. The armies of Russia and France were also in the field.

Rev. Dager, alone on a bicycle made an exciting ride of 150 miles between the lines of these armies to take supplies to his station and not a shot was fired at him. He impressed the thought of how God had protected his workers during that terrifying time.

Rev. Dager's work has been very fruitful. He has had 5,000 converts at one communion and taken in over 500 members at one time. It took two days to baptize these converts.

Saturday morning the delegates returned to their homes. Next year's meeting will be held in South Salem.

The News Censorship

The United States is now under news censorship. That censorship is partially of official creation and partially self-imposed by the leading publications and news organization—mostly the latter.

There are in times like these many troop and battleship movements—many plans of the war and navy department, contemplated or in process of execution which it would be the height of folly to publish broadcast but aside from that there is little news censorship in the United States. The people are advised of every happening of consequence and there is no attempt made to procure the publication of any false information. Neither is there any request that the publication of any happening be suppressed.

The people can rest assured that under the present censorship, what they read is truth and all the truth and that only future plans are withheld from publication.

There is absolutely no need to "discount" the news published—its reliable in every detail.

Other nations involved in the war made the blunder of enforcing a censorship to the extent of casting the shadow of doubt over all publications. They paid the price of their folly.

The United States Government will never fall into such an error. Forbidding publication of government secrets is perfectly proper but the publication of a falsehood can never be justified.

Business Is Business

The people of the United States have money these days. The world war has created a tremendous trade balance in favor of this nation. We have grown crops for the world, we have manufactured for the world and the world has given us nothing in exchange but money.

The result, under trade conditions which have prevailed since the world war began not difficult to account for, has brought with it, too, an era of high prices and unprecedented demand affecting almost every article of commerce.

People have been buying freely. Sometimes, with the comparative abundance of money in circulation, the people have not been discriminating nicely between what they need and what they want.

The free handed people often go no farther, in their consideration of a proposal of sale, than to determine whether they want what is offered to them.

They have not, however, been so turned from their course by this era of prosperity as to buy what they do not want.

They know what they want and know when they have what they want and they are not inclined to look with favor on the proposal of the man who, having nothing they desire, asks only that they furnish him a living.

Free with their charity the people insist that it must be sought and treated as such by worthy applicants. With all their prodigal liberality and generosity the American people still insist that "business is business."

Land and Labor Conservation

The state of Ohio is welding into shape a splendid plan to promote efficiency in crop production. It is a big, comprehensive plan but it has to do with a subject of tremendous importance, perhaps the subject of paramount importance.

This nation has been prosperous and the people have not been compelled to learn, from necessity, the great science of conservation of necessities and mobilization and distribution of man force.

The Fayette County organization is now well launched. Our food commissioner, Dr. Maddox, has been chosen and Mr. Lantis the representative of the state who will have charge of the organization work in Fayette and Clinton Counties, is already in active service.

Representatives will be named for each township.

All the local men are to serve without compensation. It is not the idea that they are to tell the farmers how to run their farms; they are simply one part of the big plan. They are but the receivers of the big telephone line which leads to headquarters. When a farmer is perplexed about labor trouble, farm machinery, market conditions or any one of the thousand and one difficulties which confront the men who raise on foodstuffs, he knows right where to go to get action and to reach that broad authority which can give him the relief needed.

It is the purpose to keep that which the farmer needs always accessible, to distribute workers when ever needed and to see that land is obtainable for men who want to work.

The plan contemplates the co-operation of all of the states and of the national government.

When we realize the tremendous scope embraced we see how important the personal connection which the local organization furnishes, really is and what marvelous results are easily possible of attainment if all individuals act in concert.

Poetry For Today

AT LAST
A soldier of the allies,
Was working on ahead;
The earth was full of action,
And the sky was full of lead.
It wasn't easy thinking
In so terrible a din,
But he said, "I like it better
Since America came in."
He hopped across a crater
With a proud, exultant roar,
And fought a little harder
Than he'd ever fought before.
His voice was all but buried
In the ringing allied shout,
But he said, "I like it better
Since I know what it's about."
He laid about him hotly
As if wholly justified;
And something fanned his anger,
For it would not be denied.
His laugh was scarcely rising
Above the bullets' whizz,
But he said, "I've learned from 'WH-
SON
What our casus belli is."

UNUSUAL PLACE FOR "CORN" MONEY

S. E. Shultz, residing two miles east of Jeffersonville, is still wondering who left about $75 in bank notes in a tool box of a farm tractor at his place, together with a little note bearing the inscription "pay for corn." A month or more ago someone visited the Shultz place during the absence of the owner, and hauled away 64 bushels of corn, but said nothing about pay. Neither did Mr. Shultz learn the identity of the man, but his suspicions were directed toward one man whom he had reason to believe was the man who had gotten the corn. Before Mr. Shultz had started court proceedings to recover for the corn removed, he found the roll of bank notes in the tool box of a farm tractor. Mr. Shultz believes the man became uneasy and took the above method of saving himself from prosecution.

GOOD VOTE BEING POLLED IN PAINT

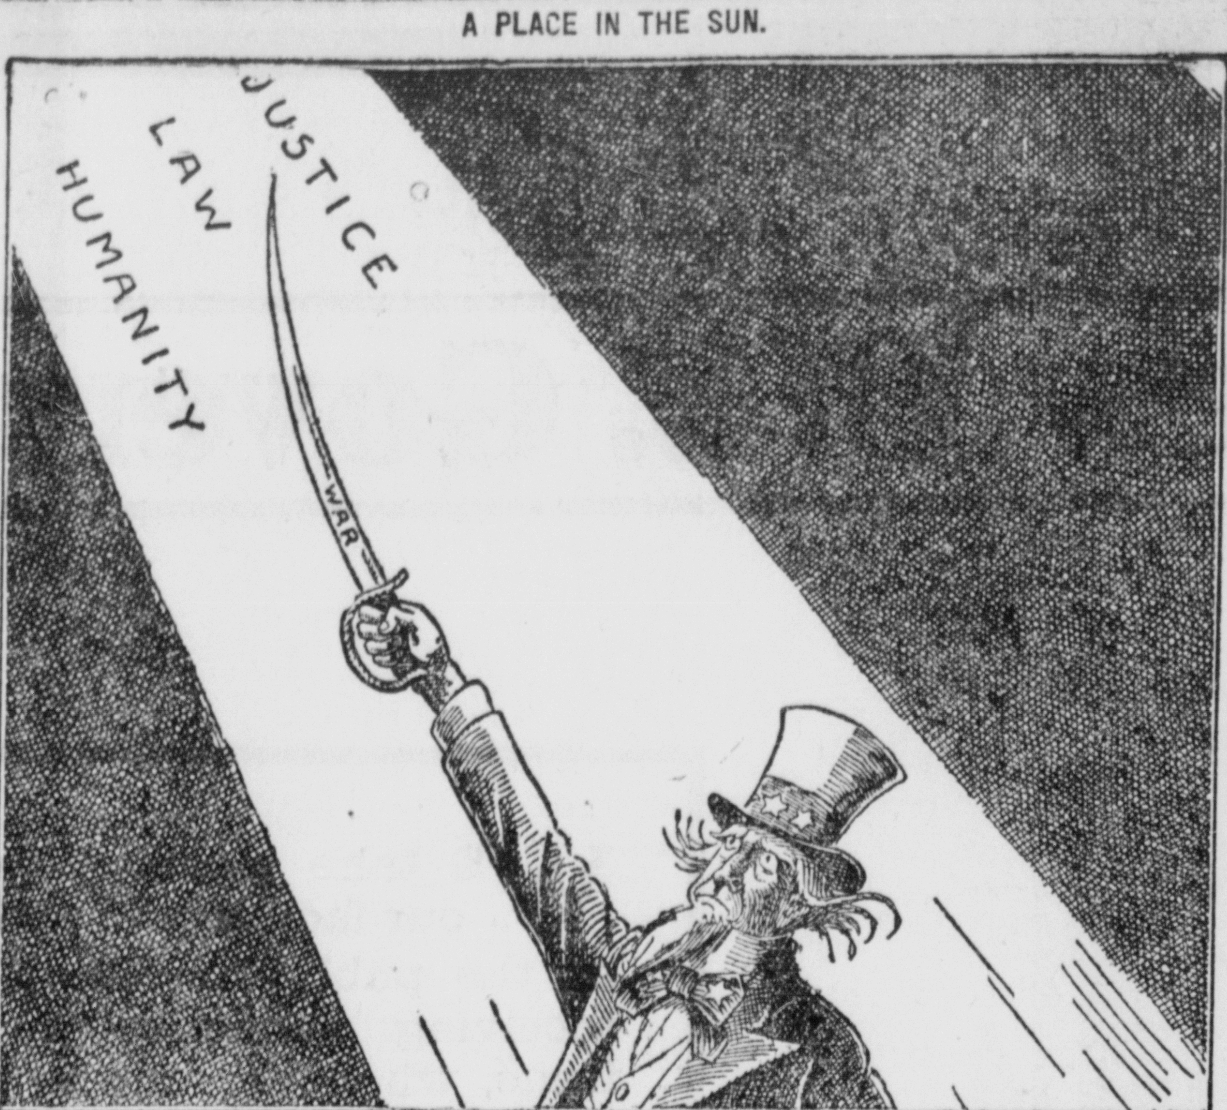

Reports from Yatesville indicate that a good vote is being polled in Paint township on the question of centralizing the schools and issuing $35,000 to cover the expense. OLD FAMILY HORSE CLAIMED BY DEATH

Many Washington folks remember the little bay horse "Clark," which Mr. C. A. Cave drove for so many years about the city and county. He died a few days ago at the remarkable age of 35 years.

The horse was a wonderfully sensible, well dispositioned animal, was a familiar figure for years on the streets of this city. Everybody knew Mr. Cave's turnout. "Clark" had some ideas of his own too, and would frequently make trips to Mr. Cave's place of business, and when tired waiting at the office he would wander deliberately home. No one undertook to stop the "runaway." All realized that Clark knew his own affairs and was capable of attending to them.

Mr. Cave owned the horse 23 years, but the last years of his life have been a long vacation. During the last three years he has only been in harness once. So far as it was in Mr. Cave's power to do so he gave his long time business partner (because that's what Clark was) a good time.

Mr. Cave, of course, feels keenly the death of the old horse, but is compensated by the knowledge that nothing was left undone by him to make the last years of his "dumb" friend happy.

ZIONISTS MEETING IS NOT DISTURBED

By Associated Press Dispatch. Cincinnati, O., April 21.—Secretary Abraham Friedman of the Cincinnati Zionist Society, has received word from the Zionist Provisional Executive Committee, of New York, of a cablegram from Moscow, reading in part as follows:

"The first Zionist convention ever held in Russia has just closed its sessions. It was the first time they ever were able to assemble and publicly discuss questions of interest to the Jewish people without fear of arrest. Resolutions were adopted congratulating President Wilson and the American people for ranging themselves on the side of the democracies of the world."

MAY BUILD PEN FOR THE LAZY

A farm of 50 acres, surrounded by a barbed wire fence and patrolled by a guard with loaded shot gun is one of the remedies for the idle who infest the city.

The announcement was made Saturday morning, and such a farm is being sought by His Honor, with a view to thus employing city prisoners.

WAR ISSUE IS SNAPPED UP

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, April 21.—The first informal offering of a portion of the two billion dollar treasury certificates authorized in the seven billion dollar war finance measure has been greatly oversubscribed.

The interest rate, it has been definitely decided, will be three per cent, and the first issue of $200,000,000 in denunciations are, will be speedily followed by other large issues.

SMASH AT LINE FROM NORTH SEA TO SWISS BORDER

After several days of very violent artillery action, the French launched an offensive on a front twenty-five miles from Soissons to Craonne and eastward, and the first day's blow netted miles of German works and 10,000 men. In the above map are shown the Franco-British and Belgian fronts from the North sea to the Swiss frontier. The heavy line shows the front before the French "hit the line" and the broken line shows the extent of the capture of the German first positions from Soissons to Craonne, while to the east of Craonne some of the enemy's second positions were occupied. This part of the battle front is known as the Champagne sector and has been the scene of some of the hardest fighting of the war.

TO CULTIVATE CANAL BEDS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., April 21.—Governor Cox today authorized Frank R. Fauver, State Superintendent of Public Works, to turn over to county commissioners and chamber of commerce organizations Ohio canal lands available for cultivation, in order to increase the food supply.

There are about 3,000 acres of such land in the state. It is stipulated that no financial profits shall be derived from cultivation of these lands.

The suggestion is made that the products grown be given to poverty stricken people in the local communities.

The city of Newark has asked authority to cultivate the bed of the old canal from Newark to Hebron, and Chillicothe officials have asked permission to use a large acreage of unused canal land in Ross county. Prisoners may be used in cultivating the land.

HOLLAND WILL REMAIN NEUTRAL

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, April 21.—Holland has formally notified the State Department that it will maintain a strict neutrality in the war between Germany and the United States.

NORWEGIANS LOSE HEAVILY

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, April 21.—A dispatch to the Central News from Copenhagen says an official Norwegian communication announces that the steamer Bergen-gut has been sunk by a German submarine, and that eight of the crew were killed.

It is also reported that the Norwegian steamer Norden, 766 tons gross, has been captured by Germans and taken to Cuxhaven.

FINE TEXTURED STATIONERY GOES

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., April 21.—Because war is at hand departments hereafter will have to struggle along without beautifully embossed stationery.

The state printing commission has decided that only department heads may use stationery of fine texture embossed with the great seal of Ohio. Cheaper grades of paper will have to be used by department employees for ordinary purposes. One bill will be cut to $280 from $360 by this step in conservation.

GERMANS ARE NOW LOSING CONFIDENCE AS TO THE OUTCOME

(Associated Press Cable.)

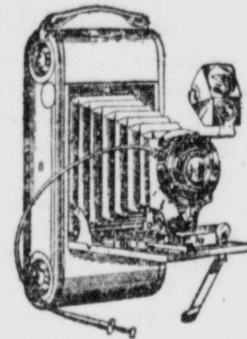

San Juan, Porto Rico, April 21.—"Germany over all!" has now dwindled to "We hope we'll pull through." This, at least, was the general opinion of the feeling in Germany as expressed by a party of twenty-one American consular officers and their wives, recently stationed in Germany, who were in port a few hours yesterday en route from Cadiz to Havana and home. Until very recently, according to members of this party, there had been no change in the German mind that victory was not as certain as at the beginning of the war. There is less certainty now.

In this party of Americans, among the last to leave Germany and who did not get out until more than a week after Ambassador Gerard had left Berlin, were Dr. William Thomas Fee, consul at Bremen, and James C. McNally, vice consul at Hamburg, together with their families. Others in the party were Consul Michael J. Hendrick, Plauen; Consular Agent Joseph F. Buck, Bremerhaven; Consul Leo Allen Bergholz, Dresden; Consul Charles I. Winans and Vice Consul Ralph Dix, Nuremberg; Consul Ferris, Mannheim; Vice Consul Giesler, Cologne; and the family of Consul Henry C. A. Damm, formerly stationed at Aix-la-Chapelle.

"Germany is gradually becoming exhausted, although she still has great power," said a member of this party. "She is exhausting her men, her food supply and her supply of all raw materials."

"The greatest exhaustion in Germany today is in her supply of men," said another consul. "All of the men from seventeen to sixty-five have already entered the service. Many of the boys under seventeen have gone in so that when the new classes are called there is no one to respond. In the cities and in the country one sees

DRAPED CHAIR AT PATRIOTIC DINNER FOR THE PRESIDENT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cincinnati, O., April 21.—In striking contrast to the 500 occupied seats at the patriotic dinner and demonstration to be held here Thursday evening, April 19, there will be one vacant chair. It will be the place of honor at the speakers table. The Stars and Stripes will drape it. Every speaker will direct attention to the vacant chair. A toast will be directed toward it.

This picturesque feature of the celebration of "Patriots' day" by the chamber of commerce and patriotic societies of Cincinnati, will typify the patriotism and national importance of the gathering. The chair will symbolize loyalty to President Wilson and his presence in spirit. United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, the principal speaker, will refer to the president as being there in idea.

ARMY STANDARDS HIGHER THAN EVER

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, April 21.—In reply to an appeal from temperance societies that "teetotalers serving in the army should not be given order which involve the breaking of their pledge," Arthur Henderson, labor member of the war cabinet sent a statement on behalf of the Cabinet, saying:
"As regards the army, both from what I have seen and what I have heard, I am satisfied that the standard of sobriety and good conduct among the men generally is higher than it has ever been before, and compares favorably with that prevailing among the civil population. There is no reason to fear that a young man of good principles and careful training will be exposed to special temptation as a soldier, or that he will find himself unsupported in standing to his convictions."

PRESIDENT CONSIDERS CRANE FOR THE POST U. S. ENVOY AT TOKYO

Charles R. Crane of Chicago, it was said in Washington, was under consideration by President Wilson for appointment as ambassador to Japan, to succeed the late Ambassador Guthrie. Mr. Crane was appointed minister to China in the Taft administration, but was recalled before he left San Francisco because of a published interview dealing with far eastern questions.

HOME GARDEN SUGGESTIONS

It is better to have one strong plant than several weak, spindling ones, says today's bulletin from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, of Washington, which is co-operating with this paper in urging food garden planting to cut the cost of living.

That means thorough thinning in the young rows, continues the bulletin. Seeds of most plants are sown more thickly than the plants should grow. This is because not all seeds have the germ of life within them, and it is desirable to plant a surplus so as to insure a sufficient number of plants.

But when these plants, often coming up thickly together, are big enough to take hold of, they should be thinned out severely. It may seem heartless to destroy many good plants, but those remaining will give a greater crop of a better quality than all the plants would produce if left to grow.

Thin enough so that the roots of every plant have plenty of room to spread out and seek the plant food in the soil. By having the monopoly of all the food within its little area, the plant will grow vigorously. This explains why it is important to keep out all weeds which attempt to share this plant food with the valuable vegetables.

When the plants come up, if the seed has been sown thickly there will be numerous thick bunches of plants together. In thinning it is usually better to pull out the plants in the center of these bunches.

Ordinarily leave the best plants and pull the younger ones, but this plan may have to be modified occasionally to insure sufficient spacing between plants. Each plant to thrive must have enough room to grow in. Thin the plants in these distances:

Inspired By Nathan Hale, Patriot,
These Boy Scouts Are Ready

Each with "ONE LIFE TO LOSE FOR HIS COUNTRY"

Nathan Hale, beneath whose shadow these sturdy little Americans assembled to sound the call of war, is their inspiration. Like their older brothers, each regrets that he has "only one life to lose for his country." Should the war with Germany be prolonged the boy scout organization to which these lads belong will be called upon, in all likelihood, to render valuable and important services to their country. Boy scouts in European countries have been entrusted with war work of various sorts and have performed it well.

Refused to Drop Flag.

Chicago, April 21.—Because he refused to drop his American flag and cheer for Germany, Gregorio Inguandl is dead. With four companions, he started an impromptu patriotic parade. A gang of twenty youths attacked him, fracturing his skull. Five men were arrested.

Negroes to Fight With T. R.

Denver, Colo., April 21.—Should Colonel Roosevelt be allowed to raise an army to fight in France, a brigade of Colorado negroes will be among the first to respond and offer themselves for service under his leadership. V. H. Walker, "boss" of the Democratic negro voters in Denver, is forming a brigade.

RAISE BEANS ON LARGE SCALE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., April 21.—With white beans selling at 16 cents a pound and the prospects for an unusual army demand, the culture of this crop, even though on a small scale will undoubtedly be most profitable, is the advice of the Ohio State University Agricultural College Extension department. Yields of 20 to 30 bushels to the acre are not uncommon and as high as $90 per acre in net profits were made by growers last season. Many farmers and farmers' boys are planning to plant beans along the woven wire fences between fields.

Beans are best adapted to well-drained, fairly open fertile loams; they are unsuited to sour soils and do best on soil carrying an abundant supply of limestone. They also respond profitably to the use of manure and fertilizer. Beans can be planted late as June 10, after all other crops.

GERMAN STRIKERS BECOME RIOTERS

(By American Press)

London, April 21.—Ten thousand strikers, mostly munition workers, tried to burn the town hall at Magdeburg Friday, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Olenzaal, Holland. Soldiers fired on the rioters, killing and wounding many, and the town now is in a state of siege.

According to the Berlin Vorwerts, the strike continues everywhere in Berlin.

Strikes in munition plants followed reduction of the bread ration. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has appealed to the men to return to work.

Armistice Alleged.

Buenos Ayres, April 21.—The Spanish legation at Rio Janeiro has received a cipher message stating that Russia has signed an armistice with Germany, according to a telegram from the Brazilian capital.

Each year a better car and a better value!

Over three hundred thousand now in use!

That is the history of the car that built Overland because it represented integrity of value.

And as steadfastly as this car has represented original integrity of value, so also has The Willys-Overland Company sustained that integrity of value throughout its service in the hands of those who purchased it.

The Overland Big Four of this season and its twin—except for the motor—the Overland Light Six, are the direct outcome of all this development.

More than three hundred thousand owners and more than four thousand dealer and factory-branch organizations have assisted this development by their experience with these cars and their helpful suggestions of improvements.

In their new beauty, in their perfected easy riding qualities, in their proven sturdiness and mechanical excellence, in their admitted tire, fuel and oil economy, these cars are worthy of the confidence we have, that they will further enhance Overland prestige.

FRENCHMEN REAFFIRM FAITH IN COMMANDER IN CHIEF, GEN. NIVELLE

GENERAL NIVELLE

Referring to "the much debated question of chief command of the French armies," the declaration of the new French cabinet says the answer is reached in the simplest manner adding:

"The cabinet, which is responsible for the political direction of the war, under the supervision of the chamber, has a high hand in all that concerns organization and upkeep, but when it has chosen a commander in chief who must lead our troops to victory it leaves him complete liberty for strategic conception, preparation and direction of operations. The government is happy to be able to seize this occasion to affirm its absolute confidence in the commander in chief and in the other commanders of our armies."

The commander in chief is General Nivelle. The latest portrait of General Nivelle to reach America is reproduced herewith. The French award to him the credit for the recent advance of the French army.

UNCLE WALT-ON THE EARLY FLY

It is still a little early for flies, but before long they will be with us in force; so the following will have to serve as a reminder when they do first appear:

"The early fly is the one to swat. It comes before the weather's hot, and sits around and flies its legs, and lays at least ten million eggs, and every egg will bring a fly to drive you crazy by and by. Oh, every fly that 'escapes' our swatters will have five million sons and daughters, and countless first and second cousins, and aunts and uncles, scores of dozens, and fifty-seven billion nieces; so knock the blamed thing all to pieces. And every niece and every aunt—unless we swat them so they can't—will lay enough dodgasted eggs to fill up ten five-gallon kegs, and all these eggs, ere summer hies, will bring forth twenty trillion flies. And thus it goes, and endless chain, so all our swatting is in vain unless we do that swatting soon. In Maytime and in early June. So, men and brothers, let us rise, gird up our loins and swat the flies! And sisters leave your cozy bowers where you have waited golden hours; with ardor in your souls and eyes, roll up your sleeves and swat the flies!"—Walt Mason.

Canton, O., April 21.—Mark J. Eichenlaub, forty-three, a tea salesman, who has a wife and six children living in Pittsburgh, was found guilty of bigamy here. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for from one to seven years. UNCLE SAM'S AWAKENING

The following is taken from a Logansport, Indiana, Reporter, and was written by a former Fayette county woman and will be read with interest by many here:

"UNCLE SAM'S AWAKENING."
(By Mrs. Nellie Barrett Rodgers)

The Kaiser called his councillors
And formed an ugly plot,
Whereby to satisfy his greed
For all the earth has got.
Said he: "We'll have to sue for peace
We're in an awful plight,
Unless we find new battle ground
And make more foes to fight."

"Now Uncle Sam—America,
He has the lion's share
Of all that's in or on the earth,
And I don't think it's fair.
So let us go across the sea
And trespass on his land.
But we shall need assistance,
So I've got a little plan.

"We'll submarine across the sea,
And with a wary scout,
Let down the bars of Mexico
And turn the Greasers out.
We'll punch the yellowjacket's nest,
And shoot them onto Sam,
We'll make him good and sore and then
You bet we'll get the jam.

"We'll pick a state out here and there
Of course we want the best—
Say, such a state as Texas
Or any in the West;
Arizona, though, they say,
Would be a stunning prize.
But we'd be mighty glad to get
Sam's states of any size."

Now Uncle Sam was busy
But he heard a funny noise;
He hobbled up and looked about
Then went and asked the boys:
"What the deuce the trouble was—
What made the eagle mad;
What made Old Glory switch her tail?
There's something wrong he dad!"

Just then he got the rumor
Of the Kaiser sneaking in,
Of the nasty plot to trap him
And to rob him of his kin;
Somebody whispered Texas,
Then how the sparks did fly!
For he just dates on Texas,
His big fat cattle boy.

He tightened his suspenders,
Took Old Glory in his hand—
Ye gods and little fishes!
This was more than he could stand;
He called his bird and war dog,
And went down to the gate;
O, when they see him standing there,
Won't they evaporate!

I see Old Glory switch her tail,
I hear the eagle scream;
Uncle Sam is shouting
And I see his eyes agleam;
"Sic 'em Towser, sic 'em,
Why, you could eat 'em up!
For we licked his bally neighbor
When you were but a pup."

I see Herr Kaiser scamper
And hustle for the boats,
For he'll go back to Germany
On anything that floats.
Uncle Sammy yells: "Good-by!
I hate this ugly mess,
But when you'll be my honest friend,
Just send an S. O. S."

SAY NO U-BOAT CURE IS FOUND

(By American Press)

Amsterdam, April 21.—Will the American fleet enable our enemies to break out submarine blockade? The answer is, most certainly not," says the Koelnische Volks Zeitung, which adds that "the submarine cure has not been invented. Therefore, it can not be invented, because there is none."

"It will be painful for us," the newspaper continues, "to sink good German ships, but we can not be sentimental in this respect and will dispose of America's seizures in fifteen or twenty days. The loss of German capita in that connection will hardly equal three days of our war expenditure."

The Volke Zee is next examining the possibility that the United States will send a fleet to German ports and river mouths to attack the submarines in their home bases, and says that they will find Germany prepared and that the scheme is improbable.

RUTH LAW WANTS TO FIGHT GERMANY "AT 150 MILES AN HOUR"

"HERE WE HAVE RUTH LAW, VIATRICE, WITH POILU."

There is one woman at least in the United States today who wants to fight Germany "at the rate of 130 to 150 miles an hour." The woman is Miss Ruth Law, who has just returned to America from an inspection of the aviators forces of the allies on the French front and who went on record as being willing either to fly into action against the Germans as pilot for an aerial gunner or to take up the duties of instructor to men who enlist in the United States Aviation corps.

HALF OF WHEAT CROP ABANDONED

(By American Press)

Topeka, Kan., April 21.—Fifty-five per cent of the 1917 wheat crop in Kansas has been abandoned, leaving the smallest acreage since 1897 and one of the poorest conditions the state has ever known, according to the official crop report issued here by J. C. Mohler, secretary of the state board of agriculture. The report covers every acre of wheat producing land in Kansas. Prospects for a crop from the remaining 45 per cent of the last fall sowing is shown as 60.13 per cent. This failure is attributed in the main to dry weather, freezing and the blowing of the soil by the wind. Increased acreage of corn, oats and potatoes is shown by the report.

EXILE BUSY

(By American Press)

Petrograd, April 21.—Nicholas Lenine, the returned political exile who is trying to launch a national movement for separate peace with Germany, is meeting with rebuffs on every hand. Lenine is being attacked in the press and duma and by representatives of the Socialists, the labor party and the army, but in spite of the opposition he persists in the hope that he can gather together enough radicals to influence the government. Demands have been for Lenine's arrest on the ground of "treasonable utterances," but this was opposed by Professor Miliukoff and others on the ground that free speech must be tolerated in free Russia.

M'ADOO IS ABOUT TO ACT

(By American Press)

Washington, April 21.—Announcing that it will be at least sixty days before any part of the emergency issue of $5,000,000 in bonds and $2,000,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness which congress will raise for war expenses can be ready for the market. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo took further steps to replenish the treasury funds which are running very low. He will very shortly issue $200,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness to bear interest at 2 1/2 per cent, and from time to time will issue similar certificates, at 3 per cent, to meet the expenses of the government until June 30, when revenue collections will be paid in. On that date all of the contemplated issues will be retired.
